I'm getting the fuck out of California \(whatever\)

submitted 5.3 hours ago by MyNameIsMud

Wife and I found a place in a other state that we can pay cash for right now. Its a no-brainer, either continue struggling here and waiting to catch a break or take control of my life and live somewhere where myself and my family can THRIVE. We're going to be out of here by the end of this month.

I already have a few, problem is with these CA laws is I think I'm technically a felon because I refuse to neuter my AR's. And I illegally conceal carry here too because I haven't got my permit. Gun laws had alot to do with the state we are moving to! Both those issues will be solved simply by getting the fuck out.

Welcome to the club! You are going to love it! My husband and I made the same decision a year ago this week. We can't buy a house until Oct because we filed bankruptcy on $200K worth of cancer medical debt (thanks Obama) before leaving CA. BUT, besides medical debt we had a ton of friends and family debt. We paid it all off (nearly $20K) this year, rented a 3 bed 2 bath house, and acquired a minivan. (Besides taking three mini vacations, and putting our kids in lots of extracurricular activities). You can improve your situation and quality of life quickly outside of Commiefornia.

I got out and went to another state and have been doing great. It's a very freeing feeling to openly talk politics with people instead of trying to hide in plain sight so your vehicle doesn't get fucked up or someone doesn't start screaming at you cause you offended them.

I have been planning to move out of this shitty state as soon as I can, preferably somewhere like Nevada, Idaho, or Montana. But now I think I am going to stay and try to fight for my state. If ICE can keep deporting beaners, and fags and niggers keep killing each other with AIDS and bullets, then eventually we will have a chance at taking this magnificent state back. I've found a large piece of land in the mountains that I am going to buy and use to establish my life and home base here in California. With Hollywood pedos being outed left and right I think we can get rid of quite a few jews too. It there are other white people on the fence about leaving, stay. Stay and fight with me to make California a laughing stock or the nation no more! Also, Patrick Little for president 2020!

Commiefornians move to the South or Midwest, realize what true fucking conservatism means, and promptly start the demographic shift to the left. I've seen the same exact fucking situation play out dozens of times. "Oh HI, I'm such and such, just moved here from Cali. Who am I voting for, you ask? Sometimes the best way to fight a battle is not from an isolated point in the middle but by moving out and then coming back in. sometimes a situation needs to be pushed over the breaking point or allowed to fall over it before a true solution can be brought to it. It isn't the best solution but reality rarely gives us the best case scenario. Sometimes for the "good guys" to finally step up they need to see that the other side is "bad guys" and not just "not good guys".

That's where I'm originally from but no, not going back there. Although I did have a good opportunity to own land up there, I would still have had to finance it and a house to build.

California is turning into a Chino-Mexican colony anyway.

I plan to move out of California as well. The only problem is there are limited states I can move to for my job. Oregon, Washington,

Colorado, Texas, Minnesota. Which state are you moving to? (not that I'm going to follow you)

Idaho. Any of those states on your list except Minnesota would have done as well.

Nevermind. I saw that you're moving to Idaho. I'm worried about every state in my list except for Texas... unfortunately, I'm limited to Houston. Sigh.

I am an east coaster, and so are all of my large extended family originally. All of the fucked-up, bad family eggs migrated to California.

That's a big big step up from California. Congratulations.
