Hunter Biden hides away at Joe Kiani's \$50M California vineyard amid his brewing criminal probes: Democrat donor is one of President's 'closest friends' and received multi-million-dollar federal contracts

Hunter Biden (left) has been spotted hiding away at a $50 million Santa Ynez, California vineyard estate (inset) owned by Joe Kiani (right), a top donor to his father's campaigns. It is not the first time Kiani, described by Joe Biden in 2018 as 'one of my closest friends', has offered shelter to a troubled Biden family member. Kiani, who runs Masimo Corporation, offered Joe's niece Caroline Biden a job in their marketing department in July 2018 after a slew of bad press following her conviction for a year-long spree using a stolen credit card to rack up $110,000 of charges.

Hunter Biden is ordered to appear in Arkansas court for paternity case after baby mama demanded he be thrown in jail for refusing to hand over financial records in child support dispute

Hunter Biden (left with son Beau Biden, Jr) must now appear in an Arkansas court for his paternity case brought by his baby mama Lunden Roberts (top right with daughter Navy Joan). Independence County Circuit Judge Holly Meyer today ordered Biden to attend the court hearing on May 1 because his absence is 'interfering with the process of litigation.' 'From now on ... I want both of your clients at every hearing I conduct. I will no longer allow us to excuse clients because it is interfering with the progress of litigation, which is taking way too long to get over simple points,' she said.
