VP Kamala Harris and Doug Emhoff are caught up in scandal over their 'plantation-like' LA country club that's been labeled a 'racist aristocracy' that 'disregards reports of sexual assault' and rejects anyone not white or Jewish in blockbuster lawsuit

Ultra-elite Hillcrest Country Club in Los Angeles is at the center of a furious race storm in a new lawsuit filed this week against the club and its leaders. The club - known for having mostly Jewish members - has been branded 'racist' by Matthew Winnick, who claims the club retaliated against him VP Kamala Harris' husband Doug Emhoff, who is Jewish, is a member there and has said it's one of the couples 'favorite places in the city'. The lawsuit begins with a quote from Vice President Harris, 'In times like this, silence is complicity.'

'Killer jock' school football star, 17, whose millionaire dad tried to 'cover up his role' in murder of boy, 16, beaten to death outside Halloween party - as cops apologize for giving family valet parking at court

Seven young men including high school football star Talan Renner, 17, have been charged in the brutal murder of Preston Lord, 16, who was found critically injured on a Queen Creek road after being attacked at a Halloween party in October. Authorities took months to name the suspects, with enraged locals demanding justice for months and claiming the young boys' powerful families were preventing justice from being served. Ashley Reynolds, who worked for Talan's father Travis Renner, has claimed she was an unwilling participant in a coverup that allegedly began as soon as Lord was critically injured. The former employee at the media company told Arizona Republic that her bosses Travis Renner and Adam Kifer, CEO of Relentless Media Agency, openly discussed their plans to hide evidence and shift blame on another boy. Preston's murder highlighted a growing cases of group violence by teenagers in the Phoenix area and other towns in Maricopa County. Police have said a street gang dubbed 'Gilbert Goons' were attacking teenagers and robbing stores.

Missouri teen Kaylee Gain is 'fighting hard to stay alive' say loved ones as her GoFundMe soars to \$200,000 after 15-year-old suffered severe brain-damage when her head was smashed against concrete during high school fight

Kaylee Gain (left) is 'fighting hard to stay alive' after having suffered a skull fracture and frontal lobe damage when her head was repeatedly smashed into the ground during a brawl (right) near her St. Louis high school last Friday. She was left alone on the ground to convulse before EMTs arrived. The family say Gain (inset) has 'major brain bleeding and swelling' and is in 'critical condition'. They will not know the full extent of the damage until she wakes up. A GoFundMe created in support of Gain has raised nearly $200,000 in just two days.
