Wheels on fire: Tesla bursts into flames on California highway car began to 'shake'

Bishal Malla, of Elk Grove, was driving down Highway 99 near Cosumnes River Boulevard when he started to feel his electric vehicle begin to shake. He stopped to check if he had a flat tire, but when he opened his door, he found smoke billowing from underneath the car. He immediately got out of the car and to safety and called 911. He was alone in the car, which he was grateful for as he watched the two car seats burn to a crisp. He was on his way home to go to a party with his wife and their two children, one and three. 'I'm just so lucky to be alive at the moment. I'm so glad that my family was not there,' he said.
