Wines and Spirits

Kruger Inc. is a major importer, producer and marketer of wines and spirits.

Brief History

The Wines and Spirits business unit was created in September 2006, when Kruger Inc. acquired Maison des Futailles S.E.C., a Québec company. It owes its solid performance to the extensive and invaluable expertise developed since 1922 by the S.A.Q.'s bottling plant (Société des alcools du Québec or Québec liquor board) and to impressive growth over the past decade. Today, this unit distributes approximately 20% of all wines marketed in Québec and continues to expand into other provinces and the United States.

So he gave her all of the company information and email addresses for everybody in the company.

Then he abused her.

Then she emailed everybody in the company and some major media that he abused her, used the company credit card to hire prostitutes and told some people he stole the whisky formula from another company.

Then he threatened her.

Then she told her gangster boyfriends the address of his house in Las Vegas.

Now she wants some money for her info.

She has lots of webpages on Twitter, Facebook, 49ers websites, etc. She isn't going away easily.

It isn't over yet...

The moral to this story: Be careful what you wish for.
